
Woodstock '94 Festival

Saugerties, New York

The LA Group provided comprehensive site analysis, environmental assessment, site master planning, design, engineering, and construction management for an outdoor music festival on an 800-acre site.

The project scope included a visual analysis, site circulation plan, stormwater management plan, wastewater treatment engineering, infrastructure connections, wetland delineation, complex regulatory permitting, site restoration planning, and construction observation and monitoring.

the LA group
Landscape Architecture and Engineering, P.C.